SUMMER 2017

Fall SEC College Tour Visits Three Northeastern Cities

The 2017 Fall SEC College Tour returns to the Northeast region but will visit three new cities, Sept. 11-13. Destinations include Portland, ME, Boston and Providence, RI. The trip to the region is the first since spring 2016.

"We are excited to be traveling in the Northeast for this year's fall tour," said Seth Schilling, Interim Associate Director of Recruitment at LSU. "SEC universities offer some of the best college experiences in the nation – both in and out of the classroom." Click to read the full story.

Roberts, Van Scoy Win First SEC ALDP Alumni Fellowships

Dr. Sue Roberts from the University of Kentucky and Dr. Irma Van Scoy from the University of South Carolina are the first recipients of the SEC Academic Leadership Development Program Alumni Fellowship. The fellowship provides opportunities for SEC ALDP alumni to visit other SEC universities to strengthen their administrative leadership skills.

SECU Visits China as Part of Georgia Study Abroad Trip

SECU joined the University of Georgia's Institute of Higher Education on a study abroad trip to China in June. Along with a small group of UGA students, we visited China's Ministry of Education, participated in a seminar at East China Normal University and learned about Chinese higher education.

We captured the week-long experience through a daily blog. Click to read the SECU Blog from Abroad.
