

SECU QUARTERLY

FALL 2018

SEC Debuts Its Academic Video on SEC Network

The SEC continues its unique and longstanding commitment to supporting the teaching, research, service and athletic excellence of its 14 universities. Earlier this fall the Conference utilized its SEC Network platform, both broadcast and digital, to debut its first academically-focused public service announcement. The video uses the SEC's "It Just Means

More" messaging and aligns with its on-going image enhancement campaign. Click to see the video.

Participants Named in 2018-2019 SEC Faculty Travel Program

The SEC Faculty Travel Program will support more than 100 faculty visits during this academic year. Established in 2012 by the SEC Provosts, the program is designed to provide financial assistance from the SEC office that bolsters intra-SEC collaboration. Identified participants will travel to other SEC universities to exchange ideas, develop grant proposals, conduct research and deliver lectures or performances. Click to read the full story.

SECU Academic Initiative Expanded

The SEC has announced it is expanding the scope and changing the name of its 13-year-old academic initiative to better leverage the success of its athletics programs in support of the broad mission of each of its 14 member universities. Click to read the full story.

SEC NEWS AND NOTES

Kentucky Hosts Academic Leadership Development Program Workshop

SEC College Tour in Pacific Northwest Focuses on School Counselors

Arkansas Wins 2018 SEC Student Pitch Competition in College Station

STORIES FROM AROUND THE SEC

Missouri Professor Wins Nobel Prize in Chemistry

Georgia Track and Field Student Named NCAA Woman of the Year

LSU Researchers Lead Study with Faculty from Auburn & Texas A&M

SEC Commissioner Greg Sankey Receives Contract Extension to 2023

/TheSECU

@TheSECU

SECUniversity

TheSECUniversity